PROPOSITION OF HIS COMPANY.

Baye Local Rights Also-Ordion the matter of regula-and detailed at length a corporation represented ay the right to construct a double-street railway on Brook average frond street to the city limits was up. The Clerk read the report of becommittee, which has already oticed in the Dispatch, The report at the suggestion of Mr. Pollock, from the table, and on his motion reporty-owners along the line of repeated road were heard by the ite. Mr. J. J. King submitted a thy-signed petition from property-on Brook avenue who were op-to the line. Mr. King, in offering aper, sinted that the street was teet wide, and that a double-track rould mean the breaking up of the

as on Brook avenue.

John Kane, who was the first proowner to address the committee, the that the road would greatly the business of the street, and much of the property on Brook ave-

Moore
Mr. Bloomberg offered a resolution, which was adopted instructing the clerk of the committee to report at each meeting the balance to the credit of the various funds of the department, less the pending pay-rolls and hills.
On motion of Mr. Pollock, a sub-committee of three was appointed to confer with the attorneys of the Richmond Railway and Electric Company and the Richmond Traction Company regarding the right of way ordinance. The Chair appointed Messrs, Pollock, Carter, and Ebel members of this sub-committee.

then Messrs Polices, Cartier, and Edel obers of this sub-committee. r. Mounteastle moved that the City At-ies be authorized to advertise for sale aln houses, condomned for the open-of Fifth street (Fulton).

g of Fifth street (Fulton).

Gills and pay-rolls were approved.

In motion of Mr. Policek the committee emmended to the Council the approprion of $15.00 for the construction of a ser from Eleventh and Cary streets, soing under the Gallego Mills, and retying into the mee-way.

Its committee requested the Richmond letten Company to suspend work on all red streets (First street principally) all spring, owing to the bad weather.

WANTS THE TRACKS MOVED

WANTS THE TRACKS MOVED.

John J. Kins appealed to the body we the street rallway tracks on Mar-street west of Adams taken up.

THE SALOON MAN IS FINED. Officer Minor.

was nothing striking or undsual

The Impressive Services Attended by Many Sorrowing Priends.

The remains of the late William Loven-

The service commenced promptly at moon. It consisted of a rectual of the almosteth Franks, first in Hebrer, and then a English. This was followed by an addiress, like a proce poem or grand thremody, and the rectual of the hymn, "What Is Douth?" The service at the house concluded with an extempore prayer by Rubbi Callieth, couched in the most stoquent terms, and expressing the lenderest sentiment.

The funeral cortege was one of the

The funeral cortage was one of the longest ever seen in the city. Arriving at the grave, the obsequies were continued by a recital of the mourner's prayer by Rabbi Callsch, and the reading by Mr. Joseph Levy of the office of the laid upon the table until the next meeting. This was done.

BIDS OPENED.

BIDS OPENED.

BIDS OPENED.

BIDS of furnishing the department with feed and for relaying stone paving on certain streets were opened, and the contracts awarded to the lowest bidders, this to be determined by the City Engineer.

The funeral cortage was one of the longest ever seen in the city. Arriving at the grave, the obsequies were continued by a recital of the mourners' prayer by Rabbi Callsch, and the reading by Mr. Joseph Levy of the office of the load of the L. O. B. B.

Among the prominent citizens who attended to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased were: Other than the contracts awarded to the lowest bidders, this to be determined by the City Engineer.

The contract to supply cement and pipe girls Lodge, No. 588, K. of H., the Legion Each.

to the department was let to Warner of Honor, the Order of Chosen Friends.

Moore
Mr. Bloomberg offered a resolution, Good-Fellows, and the Heptasophs.

DEATH OF MISS SIMONS. Miss Mary Constance Simons, the only daughter of Major W. E. Simons, died suddenly at 2 o'clock last Sunday morning at the residence of her father. No. 315 north Twelfth street. Miss Simons had been confined to her bed for three weeks with an attack of the grip and inflammatory the proposition, but her condition was with an attack of the grip and inflammatory rheumatism, but her condition was in no wise regarded as serious until Christmas-Day, when, towards evening, she developed pulmonary complications.
The end came very suddenly and unexpectedly.
Miss Simons was only 22 years old. She was a very attractive young lady, possessed of many artistic and graceful accomplishments, and she numbered her friends in this and other cities by the score.

Her funeral will take place at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Peter's Cathedral, with requiem high mass.

OTHER DEATHS AND FUNERALS. Mrs. Mary Bagley, wife of Mr. John Bagley, died at the residence of her husband, No. 316 north Twenty-fifth street, at 2:35 o'clock on Sunday morning. Her funeral will take place from St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock this morning, with re-church at 9 o'clock this morning, with requiem high mass.

Mrs. Sellie M. Filppin, relict of Captain B. F. Filppin, died inst Sunday morning, in the 74th year of her age. Her funeral took place from Pine-Strest church at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. B. Hutson officiating, and the interment was made in Hollywood.

The funeral of Mr. Thomas Matthews, who died at 18-29 o'clock hist Sunday evening, took place yesterday evening from the late residence of the deceased, No. 1818, cast Marshall street.

m was laid upon the table Trouble Between Mr. Donatt and made glad last night. Probably for the first time in the history of the Institution was an evening of entertainment and en-There was nothing striking or unusual in Justice John's Court yesterday morning, and the session was one of continuous harmony and good humer, mark-rendered.

The affair was a concert given for the especial edification of the inmates of the institution. It was arranged by the genial Superintendent of the Almshouse, Mr.

e on violin, by Professor M. companied on the plane by Mr.

inipalitation by Mr. John Eggleston, in and plano duet. "Manhattan March," by Masters Freddie and or by Mr. J. B. Poindexter. Song by Professor M. Stelln. Comic song by Mr. W. F. Reildy. Recitation, "The Outcast," by Miss M.

at length at its its by Hon. D. C. Song, "Dear Mother's Way," by Captain monwealth, and defendant. The Recitation, "The Drunkard's Way," by Edward Dandridge May Die From the Effects of His Injuries.

Edward Dandridge, a respectable-look-ing colored man, was run over yesterday

Entertainments at the Y. M. C. A.

given at the Young Men's Caristian Association Hall to-night. The first will be delivered by Rev. Dr. D. B. Greige, of Baltimore, Md., who will speak on "Ben Hur," and he will be followed by Rev. George Harroom, an Armenian, who will include upon and describe the massacres of his propole.

of his peorle.

Both gentlemen are able and eloquent platform orators, and the combination is a very happy one. A merely nominal entrance fee will be charged.

The Glee, Banjo, and Mandolin Clubs of Brown University, of Providence, R. L. will appear at the Young Men's Christian of the eventure of New-the Course Entertainment Committee he club is composed of twenty-two sembers—ten banjos and twelve mando en E. Greene, the well-known humoris-

Secretary Tibbitts Here To-Day.

Mr. George F. Tibbitts, formerly see retary of the Young Men's Christian As retary of the Young Men's Christian As-sociation here, will arrive in the city this morning with his bride, and they will be the guests until to-morrow afternoon of Mr. C. W. Tunner, No. 219 south Third street. Mr. Tibbitts was married in Bos-ten last Thursday morning to Miss Etta Colburg, of Aylemer, Ont.

To Cure a Cold in One Day take laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if falls to cura

CITY OF MANCHESTER

COUNCIL ADOPTS ORDINANCES REGULATING WATER DEPT.

WEDDING CELEBRATED.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald Entertain Many of Their Friends-Services in the Churches Sunday-Personals

The Manchester Council met last night in called session to consider a series of resolutions governing the prices for the water supply and the duties of the Superintendent of the Water-Works, These resolutions were unanimously adopted. They were drawn up by the Water Commissioners and submitted to the Ordinance Committee which, with some minor changes, reported them to the Council, There were present of the Council, Prestdent O'Brien, and Messra, W. H. Owens, Matthew Morton, R. L. Patram, C. H.
Sims, W. T. Hart, and M. A. Campbell.
THEIR TIN WEDDING.

Saviour.
Harzillaar's great question, "How Long Have I to Live?" was the subject of Rev.
J. O. Babcock's sermon at Fifth-Street Methodist church Sunday night. In the Few social events of the holidays will night of their tin weedding by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fitzgerald, of 1019 Porter street. The puriors were filled in a large level on the property of the puriors were filled in the companion of the puriors were filled in the puriors were street. The parlors were filled till a late hour with friends who had come in bonor of the occasion, and there seemed an ENTERTAINED THE INNATES.

A Delightful Concert as the City
Almshouse Last Night.

The hearts of the poor unfortunates who fill the words of the city almshouse were sisted Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald in receiving ceiving.

The evening passed away only too quickly in social chat and music and the singing of old, familiar songs.

KNEE BA LY HURT. Last night the yard engine of the Pe-tersburg railroad backed into a coal-ear, and the fireman, Joe Johnson, was baily burt about the knee, while the engineer, Frank Phillips, was much shaken up, but not injured.

The cars were on a siding and were unseen by the men on the approaching engine until stopping became an impos-

Dr. Ingram was called to see the inred man, and dressed his wounds. "Jacob's Ladder" was the name of the Christmas entertainment given last night in Central Methodist church by the Earnest Band, and a very pleasing affair it ple berries and intertwined with trailing vines. Upon the laider hung the presents in great profusion and variety, and or which every one present received his

HOLLY TEA TO-NIGHT.

The Ladies' Christian Band of Centra The Ladies' Christian Band of Central Methodist church will give their Hody Teato-night at the residence of Rev. W. W. Lear, on Porter street, Mrs. C. T. Bringle, Misses Elvie Davis, Della Ogelvie, and Mr. Robert Minor will sing, while Misses Ethel Harding and Lacy E. Carr have arranged a very attractive programme of instrumental music.

Mr. J. M. Marshall and Miss Magnolia.

Mr. J. M. Marshall and Miss Magnolia Brockwell were united in holy wedlock last night at the home of the bride. Fourth and Maury streets, Rev. J.

Spencer performed the ceremony MISS ROLIN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY The home of Mrs. Rolin, 800 Porter street, presented a brilliant scens last evening. The occasion was a Christmas party, given by little Miss Mae Rolin to her young friends. The house had been beautifully decorated with running celar and each of the guests received a pre-therefrom. The little ones were roy entertained until about 10 o'clock, w sherefrom. The little ones were royally entertained until about 10 o'clock, when they wended their way homeward. Miss Mae Rolins was assisted in receiving her guests by Misses Lucia Owen, Ruth Van Houton, and Master Royal Turpin. The following guests were present: Misses Rita Weisiger, Addle and Rachel Snellings, Bertha Adams, Mary Patteson, Lucia Owen, Maggie Owen, Xelia and Emily Fitzgerald, Emma Lear, Elenor and Lyle Gary, Eliza, Alice, and Elsio Ingram, Jean Page, Mary Whitney Davis, Lella May Hooper, and Phylis Snellings; Masters Sylven Patch, Jr., Lawrence Page, Ingram Taylor, Henry and Garrent Patteson, Wilhur Weisiger, William Sykes, Royal and Carter Turpin, Arthurand Sylven Snellings, Vincent and Donaldly Adamson, Charles Van Houten, Jr., Vivian Brooks, John and Nelson Ingram, Chaperons: Mrs. Rollin, Misses Katis, Cox, Maud Patteson; Messrs, Dan Brodnax and Davis.

nax and Davis.
SOON TO BE MARRIED.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Drawhaugh ave issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mass Corn Margaret, o Robert Angustus Vaden, Wednesday, amany 6, 187, at 5 o'clock in the after-con, at the Methodist church, Camp time, but had only been confined to his bed for a few days before death rolleved him of his sufferings.

Mr. Condrey was in his isth year. He must been in the brick business all his life, but for the past few years had not been actively engaged on account of his Sunday seattle.

health.

He leaves one brother and two sisters—Mrs. R. P. Smith, Mrs. Purcell, and Mr. Wistar Condrey.

The following gentlemen were pallbearers: James A. Lyscomb, T. H. Fisher, W. B. Walke, John T. Abbott, Herbert L. Ferguson, and John A. Blander.

The funeral of little Henry Lane, who The funeral of little Henry Lane, was died Saturday hight at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Harnish, of Swansboro, took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'cloy, from the above residence, and the body was laid to rest in Maury Cemetery.

The following young gentlemen were the pail-bearers: John Trevillian, Oscar Booker, Willie Book, and John Traylor.

POLICE COURT NEWS. POLICE COURT NEWS.
In the absence of Mayor Maurice, Justice Tyson presided in Manchester's White Temple yesterday morning.
Plummer Graham and Willie Mayo were before the Court for creating a disturbance in the house of Amy Holmes last Saturday right. His Honor fixed them
$2.50 each and costs.

Willie Graham and Samuel Hall (both colored) were charged with creating a colored) were charged with creating a disturbance in the store of T. L. Cersley and assaulting R. T. Bass on last Sat-will stop at Hotel Fitzgerald until the cold enap is over. Robert Bolden (colored) was the next offender. Robert was charged with beating and assaulting his best girl last Sat-urday night. Eliza Hix and Bob were courting when Eliza tore Bob's shirt. Hob hauled off and bit her in the head.

Eliza swore out a warrant and Bob was fined $2 and costs by 'Squire Tyson, CHILD SERIOUSLY BURNED. CHILD SERIOUSLY BURNED.

The 2-year-old child of William Richardson (colored) was ecriously burned yesterday morning at the father's home, about a mile from the city. The child was left in the room alone for a few minutes, and when the mother returned she found the child's clothing all in a blaze. When she had succeeded in putting out the fire she found that the child was very badly burned about the body was very badly burned about the body and legs. Dr. Ingram was called in and rendered the necessary medical attention.

SUNDAY IN THE CHURCHES.

Rev. Dr. Tudor, of Centenary church, Richmond, preached at Central Methodist church Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, Rev. W. W. Lear, who occupied Rev. Dr. Peterson's pulpit in Petersburg, Rev. E. H. Rawlings, of Clay-Street church, Richmond, preached a striking sermon at Central church at night. He pictured the Christians' life and the unlimited love and power of the Saviour. SUNDAY IN THE CHURCHES.

norning the minister preached on "The Large congregations greeted Rev. Mr. Dennis, of Meade-Memorial church, at both services Sunday. Mr. Dennis took for his text the Eth verse of the second chapter of St. Luke's Gospel, and at night took the 21st verse of the second chupter of Matthew's Gospel.

AT WEST-END CHURCH. There was a good attendance of scholars at the West-End Methodist Sunday are at the West-End Methodist Sunday school Sunday morning, and several new scholars were enrolled. The last half hour of the session was made a consecration service, and several of the officers and teachers, as well as some of the scholars, while expressing gratitude to God for the mercies and blessings of the past year, reconsecrated themselves to His service for the coming year. The church services were conducted both As a result of the recent revival ser-vices at Stockton-Street church, con-ducted by Rev. J. E. Hutson, seven can-didates for baptism were received at the close of the evening service Sunday.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS.

Judge B. A. Hancock holds court in betersburg this week. Mrs. Henry Harnish is quite sick at her home near this city.

Miss Lizzle Nunnally is visiting friends at Drewty's Bluff.

t Drewry's Riuff. Claud Cerbus and family have returned rom Chesterneld, where they have been isiting Mrs. Cerbus's father. On Thursday night a Santa Claus entertainment will be given at Ninth-Street Mission Sunday school.

Mr. Ira Atkinson and family, of Ports-mouth, Va., are visiting Mr. Atkinson's mother, in Swansboro'.

Mrs. Thomas C. Bryan, of Salisbury.

N. C. is in the city, visiting friends and C., is in the city, visiting friends and

A meeting will be held at Central Methodist church to-morrow to decide what is to be done about the proposed new

Mr. Walter Jeter, of Newport News, s visiting friends and relatives here. Mr. A. J. Thornbill is on a visit to Ap-ille yesterday morning.

Miss Annie M. Taylor, of Bremo Bluff, a., who has been visiting Mr. D. L.
ony, has left for home after a pleasant sojourn in our midst. Mr. A. C. Pulliam, father of Mr. D. L. Pulliam, is visiting his old friend, Mr.

furnin, has returned to his home in their Christmas dance at Leader Hall Thursday right. This promises to be the social event of the hollidays. The Manchester Grays will have a hop Thursday night at their Armory, Sergeants Ed. Owens and Crocks, Corporal Alden, and Private Cox will have the grangements in hand. Meade-Memoral Sunday school will have its Christmas celebration Thursday while in this city.

Mr. Vaden is a sen of the inte City Auditor J. H. Vaden, and has a host of crends in both cities. He fills an important position with the Atlantic-Coast Line at the Union Depot.

They will make Manchester their future home.

PUNERAL OF MR. CONDREY.

The funeral of Mr. R. O. Condrey, whose death occurred Saturday night at his home on Semmes street, took place vesterday evening, and the interment was of Many Complete.

Many Complete. of which $1,500 is the property of Amelia

In the second class are debts owed local

New Jerusalem Mission.

Special Christmas services were held last Sunday at New Jerusalem mission. The music was very attractive, and a powerful sermon was preached by Mr. Chauncey Giles, of Philadelphia, on the birth of Christ.

airth of Christ.

The discourse dealt with the personal advent of Jehovah. The supposition, said see, that a divine being was changed into in lafant is as absurd as the idea that hought and affection are changed into sound. When, therefore, we say that sound. When, therefore, we say that Jehovah became an infant, we must not use the word became in the sense of changed to. He assumed a human nature or clothed Himself with a human mind and a material body for the purpose or making it a medium of coming to mencelecting them, and saving them from sin, giving them light and life in larger measure, and bringing them into such relations to Himself. He came once in the firsh that He might come for ever in the spirit. He was born once in the City of David that He might be born in every man who will receive Him.

Two Days of Skating.

Two Days of Skating.

Those tokens of the acason which emphatically tell of the arrival of the hardy winter have been greeted with enthusiasm by the large army of skaters in this city, and the various pools and lakes have attracted large crowds. From early morning until late at night the merry throngs of young people have cut fantastic figures on the ice, which is now about four inches thick, and in apleudid condition for the sport. Wherever the water has been frozen ever may be seen small armies of indefatigable skaters, but the largest crowds and assaulting R. T. Bass on last salurate property of the form of the fracas. Graham was a had negro, and was continually coming into his cierk showed a very black eye from the fracas. Graham was fined $2.50 and costs and put under bond in the sum of $100 for six months. Hall was fined $2.50 and costs. On default of payment they were seen at Forest Hill and Reservoir

The ice yesterday developed a strength that precluded possibility of serious accident, but on Sanday afternoon it was very thin in places, and several persons went through, though, fortunately, there was no serious result.

Fire Commissioners in Session. Hall last night. All the members war present. Contracts for a quantity of fire alarm surplies were awarded and the regular monthly business was transacted

Personals and Briefs. Mr. and Mrs. John Zigler, of Char-lotte, N. C., are visiting Professor Rein-hardt.

Miss Fannie Payne, of Macon, Ga on a visit to her cousin, Miss Belle Wil-lingham.

Mr. Herbert F. Cox, principal of Elba School, is spending the Christmas hou-days in Culpeper. Miss Page Walker, of Madison county, is spending the holidays with Miss Corpelle Willingham.

Miss Virgie Minor, of Ohlo, is visiting her cousin. Miss May Pettis, of No. 917 west Marshall street. Miss Mary Thurston, of Berkley, is spending her vacation at her home 215 east Broad street. Mr. B. N. Farlow, of Dendron, Surry county, is in the city on a pleasure trip, and is stopping at Murphy's.

Miss Cary Gregory, of Lynchburg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McSarley, of No. 2d west Marshall street.

The condition of Elisha Carter, Jr., who shot himself in the stomach accidentally last Friday, is much improved. Misses Gertrule and Lelia Shead left Mrs. Stettimus, of Chicago, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Crington, at No. 521 west Grace street. Mr. Walter D. Phillips, known to the base-ball public as "Baby," is home from Brown University, to spend the holidays. Virginia Polytechnic Institute Cadets, will meet at Foster's at II A. M. to-day to be photographed.

The very attractive musical programme

Mrs. Fannie P. Campbell, of Horton, W. Va., a sister of Judge Roger A. Pryor, has returned to her home, after

tev. J. E. Hurt, pastor of the church, it the morning service, took as his text to portion of the 6th verse of the sixth chapter of Hebrews: "Crucifying the fon of God Afresh." At hight the subject was taken from Luke, seventh chapter and 4fth verse. Subject: "She Loved Much."

W. V., a. Subject to the following the chapter of Hebrews: "Crucifying the fon of God Afresh." At hight the subject was taken from Luke, seventh chapter and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Squire have returned from a pleasant visit to Isle of Much." Messrs. J. A. Thomas, Maynard Terrell, H. C. Cofer, Percy Chisholm, and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Squire have re-turned from a pleasant visit to Isle of Wight county.

Since the adjournment of the Virginia Annual Conference on November 18th no less than nine deaths have occurred among the membership of Union-Station

Mr. A. J. Ford commenced yesterday to harvest the ice on his five large ice-ponds, near the city. The ponds are fed by a spring of the purset water. The crop this year will be very plentiful. Rev. Dr. Henry Alexander White, of Washington and Lee University, and his wife, and Rev. Edwin T. Welfford and his wife, of Newport News, Va., are for some days at Judge Welfford's, No. 414 west Grace street.

nd to his duties, as of old.

About 11 o'clock on Sunday night a Mr. A. J. Thorshill is on a visit to Appearance.

Miss S. Gay Patteson, who has been visiting relatives here, returned to Farmitisting relatives here, returned to Farmitisting relatives here, returned to Farmitisting relatives here returned to Farmitisting relatives here.

Mesers, Sam. Bigger and Robert W.
Wilson returned yesterday from "Amptbill," the hospitable home of Colonel Randolph Harrison, in Cumberland county, where they spent several days hunting.
They begged quite a number of rabbits.
The realize are leading for a thirt who The police are looking for a thief who on Christmas-Eve visited the residence of Hon. Joseph T. Lawless and stole his two overcoats and a but, which were in the hall. Mr. Lawless had his house robbed of valuables last summer.

Captain Ro. A. E. Dabney, custodian of the Pownatan Club, while in the discharge of his arrivous duties at the club Christmas-Eve, net with quite a serious accident, slipping upon the ice at the accident, slipping upon the ice at the hydrant, falling quite heavily to the Agent E. C. Taylor, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, killed a borse belonging to Mr. J. H. Moore yesterday morning. The animal fell at Seventh and Main streets, broakng its hip, and was dispatched to end its sufferings.

Mrs. Minnie Feley, an employee at the Albemarte Paper-Mill, had ber fingers badly mashed last week batween two rollers. Dr. Hoyee D. Brooker was called Mr. Charles D. Hill, formerly of the ought to be tacked up in every grocery It's on a signboard over a large New York store is somein Broadway, where they don't believe that "substitution' pays. And nobody does believe it, except shifty and short-sighted store-keepers When a woman wants Pearline, for instance, she won't be satisfied to have some inferior washing-powder in its place. It is a fraud on the customer and a fraud on Pearline. You can help to put a stop to it. When you ask for Pearline, don't let any imitation of it be substituted for it. 525

Smires TrenoilliM (pe 12- Sa, TuaTh & weow)

Another Sale Ladies' Ready-Made Black Dress Skirts,

each one thoroughly finished and lined, in all lengths and waist measurements. Alterations made without extra charge. Prices are about bare cost of materials.

Figured Mohair Skirts, full lined throughout, velveteen bound .. 98c. Figured Sicilian Skirts, lined throughout with rustle percaline, very wide, velveteen bound ... $1.69. Figured Black Armures, extra wide and heavy, lined throughout, velvet bound, worth $3, in to-day's Plain Black Stellian, extra wide, double lined, and velvet bound sold for $3.50, in to-day's sale $2.25.

Black Honeycomb Boucle Skirts, very heavy, double lined and velvet bound83.98. Black Figured Diagonal Skirts. extra wide and heavy, worth 87, in to-day's sale$4.98.

The works - 6th & Broad

The Cow Was Stolen. A week ago Sergeant Otey made what low proves to be an important arrest. Two negro men were seen endeavoring to sell a cow near the First Market, on Franklin street, and from their appear-The very attractive musical programme sing at First-Street Eaptist church at the Christimas services, held on Sunday, will be repeated next Sunday.

The Sunday-School Association of the colored Methodist churches of this city held a largely-attended meeting at the Twenty-Fifth-Street church Sunday afternoon.

Yesterday the mystery was afterd and Vesterday the mystery was afterd and Vesterday the mystery was afterd and the sunday are the sunday afternoon.

Yesterday the mystery was solved, and it now appears that the cow was stolen from Mr. Cornelius Ellis, of New Kent county, and the negroes were Henry Wat-son and Oliver Brown, and both bear & very unenviable reputation. The cow is still held in a down-town stable, and Ser-geant Otey has notified the owner where she may be found.

Printing and Stationery Contracts,

There was a meeting at 9:30 o'clock last night of the Council Committee on Ac-counts and Printing. Those in attend-ance were Chairman Pollock and Messra, Bahon and Bloomberg, Bills for the months of November and December were approved and the matter of advertising for printing stationery, binding, advertising, etc., was taken up and the chair-man and Cierk authorized to prepare the advertisement at once. It was also decided that proposals for the stationery for the city departments should be sub-mitted upon printed blanks, containing lists of the articles desired, these blanks to be furnished bidders upon application by the Clerk of the committee, Mr. Clyde Gave Them Christmas Turkeys, Among the liberal givers of Caristmas turkeys was the firm of W. T. Hood & Co., nurserymen, who presented their office and nursery employers with orders for these Christmas indispensables, which were duly appreciated by the reciplents.

Mr. W. T. Hood, by the way, will soon move into his large, hew, and handsome residence, which he has built on his property adjoining Major Ginter's.

Board of Aldermen to Meet.

There will be a special session of the Board of Aldermen at 720 o'clock this evening for the purpose of considering the ordinance relative to the collection ment taxes the charging of interest after due for one year or more,

The Committee on St. John's Burying-Ground will meet at 8 o'clock this eve-ning at the cemetery for the purpose of thansacting monthly business.

Masquerade at Sanger Hall. A delightful masquerade ball was given t sanger Hall last night, under the auspices of the East-End Social Club, There were thirty-five couples on the floor, and the festivities were kept up until an early hour this morning. The costumes were fantastic and very effec-

The stewards upon the occasion were Messra, H. C. Quisenbury, R. Y. Baker, Samuel Thompson, and C. V. Hines. Elisha Carter Is Getting Well.

Elisha Carter, the 12-year-old boy who accidentally shot himself in the stomact on Christmas-Day, as tell of in the Disputch, is already convalescing, and his obysician. Dr. R. E. Franklin, says he DEATHS. DEATHS.

BAGLEY.—Died at the residence, of her husband, No. 316 north Twenty-lifth street, at 2:55 Sunday morning, MARY, the beloved wife of John Bagley.
Funeral to take place at St. Patrick's church THIS (Tuesday) MORNING at half-past 9 o'clock, with requiem high mass. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

FLIPPIN.-Died, December 27th, at 5 FLIPPIN.—Died. December 27th, at 5 minutes to 3 o'clock A. M., Mrs. SALIAEL M. FLIPPIN, relict of Captain B. F. Pilippin, in the 75th year of her age.

"Asleep in Jesus, biessed sleep," Funeral service from Pine-Street church, by the paster, Rev. J. B. Hutson, took place at 3 o'clock yesterday evening, the 25th instant.

JENKINS.—Died, at I o'clock A. M., Secember 28, 1826, at 1229 east Broad treet, WHITON FREDERICK, Infant son of Charles W. and Georgia Jenkins; aged 3 months. Interment at Oakwood Cemetery, TUESDAY, December Eth, at 12 o'clock Norfolk papers please copy. MATHEWS .- Died, at his residence, No.

1818 east Marshall street, December 27th, at 10:20 P. M., THOMAS MATHEWS, in the 62d year of his age.
Asleep in Josus.
Funeral from the above residence at 3 o'clock TO-DAY, the 29th. SIMONS.—Died, Sunday, December 27th, at 2 A. M., at the residence of her father, No. 315 north Twelfth street, MARY CONSTANCE, the beloved daughter of W. E.

Her funeral will take place from St. Peter's Cathedral TUESDAY MORNING

The Great Mexican Blood Tonic LARGEST $1 BOTTLES FOR 25

CENTS 305 EAST BROAD STREET, or from the To-Ka Wagon, Sole Agency, Wholesale and Retail, for Richmond, Va., and surrounding sections. Branches 230 east Broad street, and 1536 east Main street, do 25-F,Su, &Tust